EDITORIAL -- STUDENT INTEREST IN CURRENT AFFAIRS

How much are you as a student at Cedarville College interested in and aware of current national and international political and social events?

This question might be broken down into several more specific questions. Rate yourself -- are you an informed, active participant in your nation's government?

(1) Have you ever written to your congressman about your opinion on some matter? These people are public servants, but no servant can be expected to do his master's bidding unless he first knows the master's will and desire.

(2) Do you read a newspaper regularly (excluding the time spent anguishing with Little Orphan Annie or the New York Mets)? Last October it was easy to tell those who were regular paper readers from those who weren't. The readers weren't too shocked at the Cuban blockade; the non-readers were preparing for World War III.

(3) Do you vote? This would probably apply mostly to juniors and seniors. A lack of interest on the part of the voter results in candidates who are interested in securing offices for dubious reasons. When the elected one becomes corrupt, it is the taxpayer who suffers and the non-voter who cries bloody murder about lousy government. In our governmental set-up you pay for the privilege -- or, better yet -- the duty of voting. Why not use it?

(4) Are you interested enough in current events to become more informed when the opportunity presents itself? Recently an anti-communism seminar was held on this campus. An excellent speaker and good films were obtained, and at a high cost. Yet only 50-75 students and faculty members attended the non-required morning and afternoon sessions, or roughly between 10 and 13 percent of our College family.

(5) Do you listen frequently to any radio newscasts? News broadcasts are often a signal to "find another station." Although newscasts do not present comprehensive columns on news events, they are more up-to-the-minute than newspapers and can be heard almost any time of day.

What can be done to stimulate student interest in current events? Two possible aids are suggested here.

(1) Daily newspaper and weekly newsmagazine delivery to each dormitory. Not every student can arrange to be in the periodical room of the library everyday. If every student could, the papers would be so much in demand that few would get to read them. There are several good local papers available: two from Dayton, two from Springfield,

STUDENT OPINION POLL

"What is your opinion of the Artists Series thus far?"

Dave Elmore - "It's a good source of variety in the student's life, but it is an extra load of required attendance."

Gordon Taylor - "Some of them haven't been too good; they could be fewer and better."

Donna Thomson - "On the whole, they've been pretty good. They are better than last year's."

Mark Haseltine - "It's a good thing we have eight chapel cuts."

Mr. Spencer - "Perhaps I have the wrong interpretation of the word 'artist'."

Kathy Alberter - "I think they're necessary for a cultural appreciation of the finer things. I don't think all of them have been artists, however."

radio, youth camps, and the establishing of Baptist churches.

"Tent evangelism" has been the special calling of the Rev. Orlan Wilhite since 1953. Called to missionary service while in the U. S. Navy, Rev. Wilhite has since established many indigenous Baptist churches in Mindanao and Luzon.

The Rev. Gerald Smelser is a missionary ministering to the Jews. He has been superintendent of The Cleveland Hebrew Mission since 1941. He is also editor of "The Trumpeter of Israel," and broadcasts over the Mission's radio program, "Friends of Israel."

Pastoring the Immanuel Baptist Church of Fort Wayne, Ind., is the work of the Rev. Thomas Younger. He has served God by establishing "new" churches here in the United States and is secretary of the College board of trustees.

Soon to be a missionary is Dr. Donn Ketcham, who will be sailing for East Pakistan with his family in May, 1963. He was formerly chief resident physician and senior resident surgeon of St. Mary's Hospital, Grand Rapids, Mich.

The "crowning glory" of the Missionary Conference will be a Rally on Saturday night. It will feature a missionary symposium and a film entitled "Africa Awakes." Dr. Donn Ketcham will be the speaker for the evening.

and one from Xenia. Magazines such as Time or Newsweek provide comprehensive news coverage weekly, with facts and news implications that daily papers might miss in the rush of publication.

(2) The start of a political science or current events club on our campus to help stimulate student thinking along these lines. Many campuses have clubs such as this--why not ours? The "Christ Against Communism" club we have is a good start. But we need others to supplement it in the area of understanding and participation.

The truly educated man knows what's happening around him and is able to evaluate it properly. Book learning may only produce educated fools.

STUDENTS PUSH FOR 1962-63 PROJECT GOAL

A renewed effort is being made by Co-chairmen Ted Ocheltree and Tom DeLanzo to encourage the students to reach their goal of $2500 for the 1962-63 Student Body Project. The major portion of this amount will be used for the purchase of books for the library.

One of the big factors considered by the North Central Accrediting Association is the size and use of library facilities. Gifts to the library by students, alumni, and other interested individuals will help bring our library facilities up to NCA standards.

Since the refusal of three classes to go along with the faculty's challenge to raise money through class competition another plan has been formulated. The Freshman Class agreed to the faculty plan and hope to meet their goal of $735 by selling candy this spring. The remainder needed has been divided among the various dorms and figured by the number of upperclassmen in each dorm.

Listed here are the dorms, the number of upperclassmen, and the share for each dorm: Ambassador - 7, $33; Bethel - 37, $177.10; Cedar - 11, $51.70; Patterson - 15, $71.50; Rife - 15, $71.50; Faith and Hartman's - 67, $319; Harri-man and Carrs' - 18, $85.80; New Dorm - 39, $185.90; off campus - 13, $55.

It has also been decided that the $1000 collected by the students last fall towards the purchase of the 80-acre farm will be credited to the Student Body Project. This gives a much better opportunity of reaching the $2500 goal.

COLLEGE RADIO STATION PLANS FREQUENCY CHANGE

WCDR-FM, Cedarville College's own radio station, will undergo a frequency change in the near future, possibly over Easter vacation.

The change, from 88.1 to 90.1 megacycles, is the result of station interference with the sound reception of a local television station, Channel 6. The broadcast band for Channel 6 sound is 82-88 megacycles, and the proximity of the radio station's current frequency to this range results in complete obliteration of the TV sound on some local sets.

Changing frequency will require a new transmitter crystal, which will soon be ordered. It will take about one day for it to be installed and the switch completed.

ALFORD AUDITORIUM GETS INTERIOR REMODELED

The remodeling of Alford Auditorium is now in progress. The floor will be hardwood maple, seventy feet wide and seventy-five feet long. Six hundred theater-type seats are to be installed. The interior will be refinished and plans are to eventually build additions to each end of the stage, one for the piano and one for the organ.

While the new flooring is being laid, the daily chapel services are meeting in the banquet room of the new Student Center-Gymnasium.

'63-64 ACCEPTANCES EXCEED LAST YEAR'S RECORD

According to the records in the registrar's office, the number of young people who have been accepted for the 1963-64 school year, is far above that of the previous year. The statistics reveal that last year, up to and including the month of February, there were sixteen acceptances. This year at the end of February there have been fifty young people accepted for the fall semester of 1963-64.

The registrar's office reports that the process which they have for the applications moves faster than that of last year. As the applications come in and are ready for processing, they are sent through the proper channels and kept current, thus facilitating faster processing and acceptances.

DAVE WERNER NAMED MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

Dave Werner, 6'2" sophomore center from Rife Hall, was voted Most Valuable Player for the 1962-63 intramural basketball season.

The votes were given on the basis of a player's value to his particular team. Werner led his team to second place in the post-season tourney, although Rife's over-all record was only 5-8.

Werner received the trophy, given by the Whispering Cedars, at halftime of the College-High School faculty game. The Rife jumping jack polled 12 of the 39 votes cast. Others receiving votes included Dennis McDonald, Bethel (10); Gary Fransted, Cedar (5); Ed Eastman, Cedar (4); Tom Thatcher, Bethel (4); Tom De Lanzo, Ambassador (2); and Duane Bales, Rife, and Jim Sprague, Bethel (1 each).

CHARLESTON VICTORIOUS IN SENIOR CHURCH TOURNEY

The Randolph Street Baptist Church of Charleston, W. Va., merged victorious in the Senior Division Church Basketball Tourney March 22, 23.

Charleston earned rights to the finals by edging Northfield Baptist in the morning 65-60, and by defeating Blanchester, a perennial favorite, 63-56 in the semi-finals on Saturday. They went on to defeat the defending champs from Flint, Mich., 61-60, in the title tilt. Charleston fell behind quickly 8-0 in the first quarter, but pulled to within 18-14 at the first stop. The scrappy West Virginians chipped away at the Flint lead and were down by only one, 37-36, at the half. They were still down by one, 60-59, with 8 seconds left in the game, when Don Dawson made a field goal to clinch the game for Randolph.

Roger Hart of Charleston won the Most Valuable Player trophy for the second week in a row. The talented Mr. Hart averaged almost 30 points per game, hitting 34 big ones in the final. The Memorial Baptist Church of Columbus was awarded the sportsmanship trophy.
